Glory to Jesus Christ!

October is Respect Life Month.

We are blessed here at our parish to have such an active and involved Pro-Life organization. They have raised thousands of dollars over the years to support many organizations and promotional materials. One of the members regularly writes thought provoking articles for our bulletin and for the Knights of Columbus.

This month we have several opportunities to support the dignity of human life, especially unborn human life.

1. Pray! Never underestimate the power of prayer.
2. Support the Catholic Pro-Life Collection
3. Go to the Life-Chain Event this weekend
4. Learn more about the Pro-Life Cause
5. Support Good Council Homes!

This weekend is both the national collection for Pro-Life ministries as well as the Life Chain (Sunday, Oct 6, 2pm-3pm at the intersection of Rt. 9 and Rt. 47). At the end of the month, a representative from Good Counsel Homes in Riverside, NJ, will be speaking at all our Masses. Good Counsel is a home for homeless women where they can live and learn while pregnant and during the early time of raising their child. Of all the programs I know of, this is the most direct “put your money where your mouth is” ministry.

Are there other Pro-Life causes other than the unborn? Yes! And we should also be concerned with them. But this is the month for us to work for the dignity of human life in the womb. Remember: “Whatever you do for the least of these, you do it for me!” -Jesus.

God Bless you!

-Fr. King

Dehumanization and the Unborn Child

Catholic Catechism (2270) “Human Life must be respected and protected absolutely from the moment of conception.”

The entire issue of abortion revolves around whether one believes life begins at conception. If you believe that the life within the mother is simply a “clump of cells” then abortion can now become guilt free. It has become the goal of the abortion movement to diminish the status of the fetus from human life to that of a group of cells on a petri dish.

History has given us a number of examples of dehumanization, some from the not so distant past such as slavery here in America and in many parts of the world. And also in the Nazi controlled extermination camps of Europe where Jews, gypsies, and others were depicted as less than human and therefore subject to elimination on a massive scale. The idea is that dehumanization permits violence by removing moral inhibitions against harming other people. We are watching that process before our eyes in America as our society and our language has reclassified the living fetus (baby) as simply a “clump of cells” worthy of rejection. It is a simple strategy: no life equals no guilt. The pro abortion people have particularly targeted the young folk of this nation with their false propaganda. And for a generation that wants their pleasure without the consequences of an unwanted baby, this is just the argument they were looking for.

Many of us came from large families back in the 50's and 60's, and I can remember being with Mom who was pregnant and at the store when a neighbor would ask, “how's the baby doing?” And yet never once did I hear someone ask, “how's that clump of cells coming along?”

We were much smarter then.

Pray every day the Bishop Sheen prayer to end abortion: “Jesus, Mary, and Joseph, I love you very much. I beg you to spare the life of the unborn baby that I have spiritually adopted who is in danger of abortion.”

It has come to attention of the Chancellor that Reverend Gustavo Agudelo is currently in the area and is offering retreats. Father Agudelo is not a priest in good standing and does not enjoy faculties within the Diocese of Camden. He is not permitted to offer Mass, hear confessions or to speak/preach within the diocese. Should Father Agudelo contact you, please inform your pastor immediately.

The Knights of Columbus will be selling “Mums” before and after Masses THIS WEEKEND.

The Catholic Grandparents' ministry builds a community of support for grandparents and equips them with tools to bring their families closer to Christ. Our next meeting will take place on Monday, October 28th at 9:45am, this is after the 9am daily Mass at St. John of God on Town Bank Rd., North Cape May. Please enter the door of St. John Neumann's Parish Office, and we will meet in the large conference room. We look forward to our guest speaker for this meeting, Kari Janisse, Campus Minister for Rowan University. For more information about the Catholic Grandparents Association, visit: <https://www.catholicgrandparentsassociation.org>.

If you would like to attend this session or have any questions, please contact Mary Kay Dunne at 610-724-6535 or southjerseygrands@gmail.com.

La PREGUNTA de la semana:

¿Por qué hay tantas Vírgenes María? Esta pregunta puede estar en el mente y corazón de algunos de ustedes. Empiezo con esta verdad: Hay una sola Virgen Ma-

ría. Hay muchos títulos o ADVOCACIONES de ella pero una sola persona, la Madre de Jesucristo nuestro Salvador. Varios son los nombres que recibe la Virgen María en diferentes países. En México se llama Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe; en Argentina, la Virgen del Luján; en Bolivia, Nuestra Señora de Copacabana; en Brasil, Nuestra Señora Aparecida; en Canadá, Notre Dam du Cap; en Chile, la Virgen del Carmen de Maipú. En estos países la Virgen se ha revelado, y la gente ha puesto su nombre según el lugar de ese país. La Virgen se identificó con la gente para comunicarse con ellos. La Virgen ha recibido títulos, por ejemplo, en tiempo de guerra, Virgen de paz, en tiempo de problemas, Virgen de la Esperanza, en tiempo de dificultades, Madre de buen consejo. ¿Cuál es tu título favorito de la Virgen María? ¿Cómo la llamas cuando hablas con ella? El título más querido por la Virgen, es Madre de Jesús. María nunca desea ser adorada, Jesús es primero para ella y quiere que sea primero en nuestras vidas, también. En la Boda de Cana dijo a los que atendían la fiesta "hagan todo lo que Él les diga" lo hicieron y se hizo el primer milagro de Jesús, cambiando agua en vino para que siga la fiesta. María quiere mostrarte el camino de su hijo, El es el Camino, La Verdad y la Vida.

María del camino, enséñanos a caminar muy cerca de ti para que nos acompañes en la vida y vida en abundancia de tu Hijo.
