From Father King

Glory to Jesus Christ!

There is a lot going on in the coming weeks both in our parish
as well as in our nation!

Monday-Tuesday-Wednesday of this week
Fr. Cesar and I will be joining all the priests of the Diocese for our annual Priest Convocation. This is time for the priests to gather and catch up with each other as well as to be refreshed and encouraged. Our speaker this year is Msgr. Stephen Rossetti, a noted priest
-psychologist, author, researcher, and exorcist. Please pray for your priests during these days!

As we have announced, on October 23rd at 6:30pm at Maris Stella Church in Avalon, Bishop Williams will offer Mass for all those in our region. If you are able, I encourage you to come out for this special event to meet our Coadjutor Bishop. He will become Bishop of Camden when Bishop Sullivan retires
in March.

We continue to pray for our nation as we approach Election Day. This campaign season has been particularly stressful for many who are unhappy with both the candidates and with the direction our country is going.
Please pray for your neighbors as we pray for our country.

Finally, November is the month of the Holy Souls. We begin by celebrating All Saints Day: those countless unnamed Saints who are now before the face of God. Throughout the month we will commemorate all of your loved ones who have died. Please turn in your “All Souls Day” envelopes at your convenience so that we can place them on the Altars of our Churches. If you would prefer the envelopes to be at one church or the other, please write that on the envelope.

God Bless you!

-Fr. King

PRO-LIFE MINISTRY

On Thursday, Sept. 26th, a number of St. John Neumann parishioners attended the inaugural March for Life in Trenton. With the overturn of Roe, the state capitols have become the focal point of the fight to save the lives of unborn babies. And to our shame, NJ has the most liberal abortion laws in the country.

There was a Mass in Trenton at St. Mary of the Assumption Cathedral at 9:30am, followed by a rally at the state capitol from 11am-12 noon. The speakers were from the legislature as well as the pro-life movement. Lots of cheering and lots of signs! Then the march began which lasted about an hour and had a fairly large crowd that stretched for blocks. Many students from high schools were involved as well as priests and nuns from all over and, of course, many mothers pushing baby carriages decorated with pro-life signs. And we certainly cannot forget the Knights of Columbus who sponsored our bus and played a key role in the day's activities. Numerous councils were involved as well as members from our own council #3546.

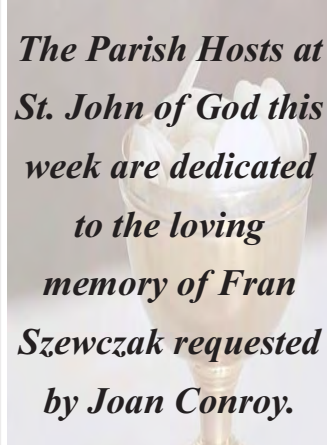

At the Mass, the homily was delivered by Bishop David M. O'Connell, C.M. of Trenton and, in an excerpt, he said the following:

"As Catholics we are pro-life. How can a Catholic be otherwise? And yet, we see in our day people, even some who self-identify as Catholic, some who hold the highest positions in government, who not only are NOT pro-life but who work against that conviction, who vigorously support a contrary position, who tragically seek to support even more legislation that enables the destruction of life at its most vulnerable stage: in the womb. The dying cries of the innocent children call out to them. God will be their judge".

Amen to that!

Flowers adorning the Divine Mercy image at St. John of God this week are in loving memory of Richard Klineburger requested by the Klineburger Family.

 The Vigil Light at St. John of God burns this week in loving memory of Fran Szewczak requested by Joan Conroy.	 The Parish Hosts at St. John of God this week are dedicated to the loving memory of Fran Szewczak requested by Joan Conroy.

Flowers adorning the altar at St. John of God this week are in loving memory of Claudette Caltagirone requested by her husband, Frank.

Please enter the door of St. John Neumann's Parish Office, and we will meet in the large conference room. We look forward to our guest speaker for this meeting, Kari Janisse, Campus Minister for Rowan University. Vamos a seguir esta semana con el Sacramento de Bautismo. Como todos los Sacramentos son vínculos de recibir y sentir el amor de Dios en nuestras vidas. Que genial es Jesús, pudo haber usado cualquier símbolo, pero escogió el agua, es natural y para nosotros limpia y da vida, no podemos existir sin agua, ni las plantas que comemos crecen sin agua.

¿Qué pasa cuando nos Bautizan?

Se nos perdona el pecado original. No significa que la persona Bautizado es malo, pero si separado de Dios. El Bautismo nos une a Dios, nos deja una marca invisible pero muy presente en nuestra alma. Esa marca no se puede borrar, aunque quisiéramos, porque Dios mora en el bautizado. Nos lleva al segundo efecto.

Cuando nos bautizan, ya no sólo somos seres de la naturaleza, sino que nos convertimos en Hijos/as de Dios. El Bautismo es un nuevo nacimiento, nos da una nueva vida porque Dios mismo van a estar con nosotros.

Formamos parte de la Iglesia.

Hay varios símbolos en la Liturgia de Bautismo ellos son:

El Agua significa que se lava la mancha del pecado original.

El Aceite significa que se pone al niño un escudo espiritual que lo protegerá del mal.

El Vestido Blanco es la limpieza que debe tener el alma del bebé.

Deben escoger de Padrinos a personas que de verdad crean y vivan como católicos. Si viven juntos deben ser casados por la Iglesia.

¡Bauticen a sus hijos/as, para que sea hijos/as de Dios!
