Glory to Jesus Christ!

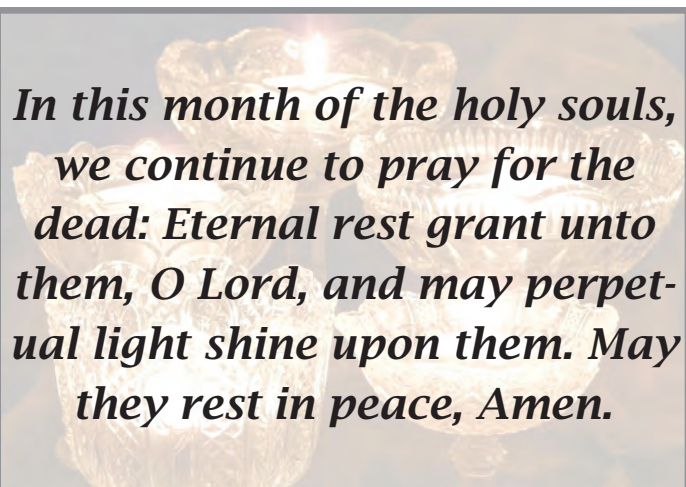

This week we witnessed our country devote millions of dollars (billions?) and huge amounts of work to get people to vote for the candidate of their choosing. Was all the campaigning and money spent worth it?

This week's readings present a dramatically different viewpoint by focus on a poor widow. Both the Old Testament and the New remind us that to "such as these belong the kingdom of God." While the election asked people to work together for a specific goal, the Gospel asks us to do whatever it is we are doing with love and devotion.

Mother Teresa famously said, "Not all of us can do great things, but we can do small things with great love." This week, as we process what the election results mean for us as a country, a community, and as individuals, let us remember Jesus' call to care about "the stranger, the widow, the orphan," the "least of these." And that we are called to act with great love.

God bless you!

-Fr. King

In this month of the holy souls, we continue to pray for the dead: Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and may perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace, Amen.

"FEED MY SHEEP" CAMPAIGN

Jesus said, "Feed My sheep." (John 21:15-17). The Parish of St. John Neumann will once again be collecting food donations for distribution to Catholic Charities and Holy Redeemer Jersey Shore Food Pantry. You are asked to participate in this parish event by taking a brown bag (which will be handed out at the conclusion of each Mass this week-end) and to fill it with non-perishable food items suitable for donation.

Then, next week, November 16th-17th, "FEED MY SHEEP WEEKEND," please return the bags to church, filled with your contributions, and carry them to the altar as an offering to God to then be distributed to the organizations listed. (It is a good idea to double-bag using a plastic bag with handles to reinforce the paper bag.)

Thank you in advance for your generosity to those in need!

Food Item Suggestions

Canned fruit/veg; canned soup/tuna; powdered milk; spaghetti sauce; instant potatoes/ rice; hamburger/tuna helper; macaroni and cheese; dried fruit; boxed jello/pudding mix; canned or boxed juices; coffee/tea; pasta/rice mixes; baby food; pop tarts; sauce/gravy mixes; syrup; breakfast/granola bars; boxed cereal (hot or cold); pancake mix/Bisquick; crackers; cake/muffin mix; jelly/jam; baby formula; condiments. Please pay attention to expiration dates on your donated items.

There are other ways of honoring your beloved dead or the intentions of the living besides having a Mass offered for them.

You may also sponsor altar flowers as well as dedicate the altar wine, hosts, and vigil lights at each church location. Call the office for more information at 609-884-1656.

THE HOLY CHILD PROGRAM

Mr. Francis Barillaro, a representative of The Holy Child Program in Bethlehem, will be our guest speaker on the weekend of November 30th/December 1st.

The Holy Child Program is a mission of hope that inspires and fosters hopeful futures for vulnerable children and their families. The program was founded by the Franciscan Sisters of the Eucharist in 1996 and is supported by the Equestrian Order of the Holy Sepulchre, a Catholic order of knighthood under the protection of the Holy See, which supports the Christian presence in the Holy Land. The Holy Child Program is a non-profit organization and relies on the generosity of others. The second collection at all Masses will go toward helping the Franciscan Sisters in their mission.

The flowers adorning the altar as well as the Holy Family at St. John of God this week are dedicated to the loving memory of Jackson H. Sturm requested by Rosalie Sturm & Family.

BINGO—Wednesdays at 1pm and Fridays at 7pm at St. John of God Parish Hall. Come play with us!

Pro-Life Ministry

The Commercial on the "View"

Recently a Pro-Life ad ran on ABC during the show "The View" which depicted graphic images of aborted children. Yes, they are children, and yes, as Pope John Paul II stated in Evangelium Vitae 58 and our Catholic Catechism agrees, abortion is the murder or taking of an innocent life. And that life is of one most defenseless, the child within the womb.

The commercial was able to run on TV due to the sponsor, Randall Terry, a committed pro-lifer and a presidential candidate, having the right to air it as part of his campaign. I recommend you view this commercial on YouTube Stupid Celebrities, Lying Journalists—but remember, it is tough to watch. The truth sometimes is that way.

I often stand on picket lines and I always carry the signs with the cute babies, but never the signs that show graphic results of abortion. Not in the open public. And I certainly would not run the ad during children's programming. But during the View? Bingo! And the reactions have been strong against it from the usual corners. CNN called it "outrageous, antisemitic, and dangerous." Now, I just wonder if they thought how dangerous abortion is to the child in the womb. But of course not, because to them it is only a clump of cells. Or so they tell themselves.

Many who support abortion have no desire to see the end product, which is a lifeless child. But not here, because no one can claim those aborted babies on that table in that ad were anything but life when you see them. A gift from God that had as much right as you and me to grow, go to school, go to the prom, work, to love and be loved. And perhaps get married and have their own children someday. Simply to have the life that God intended. Those for abortion can yell all they want about this ad but "methinks they protest too much." When faced with this ad, they now know that they are taking human life, and with that knowledge there can be no more excuses that "I didn't know" or it was "just a clump of cells." And with that knowledge comes the moral responsibility to defend life in every way possible.

And I have to give credit to the Knights of Columbus who help sponsor ultra sound machines next to the abortion clinics. One look at the baby on the screen and many expectant mothers walk away from their appointment with the abortion mill. But that doesn't end our support of the mother and the baby at all. Many of our organizations in our parish have been active in financial and material support for mothers and their newborns. Thank you and God Bless all who choose life!

THE POOR WIDOW'S CONTRIBUTION

He sat down and observed how the crowd put money into the treasury. Many rich people put in large sums. A poor widow also came and put in two small coins worth a few cents. Calling His disciples to Himself, He said to them, "Amen, I say to you, this poor woman put in more than all the other contributors to the treasury. For they have all contributed from their surplus wealth, but she, from her poverty, has contributed all she had, her whole livelihood." Mark 12: 41-44

Jueves 12 de diciembre Fiesta de Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe

Muy pronto viene el horario de la fiesta de la Virgen de Guadalupe. ¡Atentos todos!

Lunes 16 de diciembre Peregrinación al Santuario de nuestra Señora de Czestochowa.

Gracias por su colaboración ya no hay cupos, lo sentimos.

¡Dios Padre Todopoderoso les bendiga y la Santísima Virgen María les guarde!

Hemos hablado de los Sacramentos del Bautismo y la Reconciliación hoy se trata de quizá el más hermoso de los sacramentos que nos dejó Jesús: La Eucaristía.

¿Qué es la Eucaristía? Es el Sacramento en el que el pan y el vino se convierten en el cuerpo y la sangre de Jesucristo.

Jesús había deseado quedarse con nosotros y la manera que escogió es donde nosotros somos más humanos, en la mesa. ¿Si o no? cuando nos sentamos a la mesa no solamente comemos sino también nos comunicamos. No hay comido, aunque sea una taza de café con un ser querido, donde no haya comunicación de VIDA. Jesús quería participar contigo en ese compartir de VIDA. Entonces se quedó con nosotros como comida en su propio cuerpo y sangre. La mesa del altar es el lugar donde Jesús se hace presente con las palabras del Sacerdote: “Esto es mi cuerpo, esta es mi sangre” ofrecidos para comunicarnos cuanto nos ama, y se ha sacrificado para que tengamos VIDA y VIDA en abundancia. El amor que Dios nos tiene es tan grande que no podemos entender ni imaginarlo, siendo pecadores murió por nosotros.

Invita a Jesús estar presente en tu mesa bendiciéndola en el nombre del Padre, el Hijo y el Espíritu Santo. Recen, por su familia y, también, los que no tienen que comer.

La próxima semana hablaremos más de AMOR.

Ya viene la Fiesta de la Virgen de Guadalupe

Nos preparamos con las novenas en casa. En los rosarios recomendamos las visitas y las palabras de la Virgen a Juan Diego. Se puede inscribir en las hojas que están encima de la mesa en la entrada de la Iglesia. Si nunca lo has hecho hazlo, pidiendo por la paz.

¡Que Nuestra Señor de Guadalupe intercede por ¡Nosotros!
