Christ is Risen!

(Fr. King is on retreat, so here is a column about Blessed Carlo Acutis, soon-to-be canonized. The information was taken from an article appearing on the CNA website. By the time you read this, Father will have returned. ☺)

Who was he? Carlo was born May 3, 1991 in London, but moved to Milan with his parents just a few months later. While a teenager, he was diagnosed with leukemia. Before his death in 2006, Carlo offered his sufferings for Pope Benedict XVI and for the Church, saying: "I offer all of my suffering to the Lord for the pope and for the Church in order not to go to purgatory but to go straight to heaven."

From a young age, Carlo had a special love for God, even though his parents weren't especially devout. Antonia Salzano, his mom, said that before Carlo, she went to Mass only for her first Communion, her confirmation, and her wedding. But as a young child, Carlo loved to pray the rosary. After he made his first Communion, he went to Mass as often as possible at the parish across from his elementary school. Carlo's love for the Eucharist also inspired a deep conversion for his mother. According to the postulator promoting his cause for sainthood, he "managed to drag his relatives, his parents to Mass every day. It was not the other way around; it was not his parents bringing the little boy to Mass, but it was he who managed to get himself to Mass and to convince others to receive Communion daily." His mother said: "He used to say, 'There are queues in front of a concert, in front of a football match, but I don't see these queues in front of the Blessed Sacrament' ... So, for him the Eucharist was the center of his life."

Carlo's witness of faith as a child led adults to convert and be baptized. Rajesh Mohur, who worked for the Acutis family as an au pair when Carlo was young, converted from Hinduism to Catholicism because of Carlo's witness. Carlo taught Mohur how to pray the rosary and told him about the real presence of Christ in the Eucharist.

Carlo was fascinated with computer coding and taught himself some of the basic coding languages. He used his computer skills and internet savvy to help his family put together an exhibition on Eucharistic miracles that has gone on to be displayed at thousands of parishes on five continents.

There is so much more to learn about Carlo! Just turn on your computer and give him a Google...

Flowers adorning the altar at St. John of God this week celebrate the 70th Wedding Anniversary of Irene & Richard Remer.

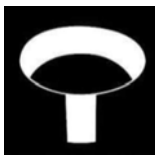

Thanks to each and every one who helped decorate St. John of God Church for Easter! Easter is always double duty because of Holy Thursday and Easter Saturday, and some of you came for both days which was greatly appreciated! Some of you help by caring for and removing the flowers afterwards. I would NOT be able to complete these tasks without the committee members who have been faithful throughout the years, and new members that come each time. Father King and Father Cesar value the time and effort with the designs. It is so nice to see the togetherness and effort that is shown when needed. I hope to see you at the next decorating event! —Janet Neill

Sorrow and Regret

Numbers suggest that Catholic women are just as likely to have an abortion as any other group in our country. According to the Guttmacher Institute, 24% of women having abortions identified as Catholic, which closely mimics the 22% of women who overall identify as Catholic. Many of us come from a generation when abortion would have been unthinkable; but our children and grandchildren do not, and so many of our families are left with the scar that the loss of a child due to abortion brings. Make no mistake about abortion: “since the first century the Church has affirmed the moral evil of every procured abortion.” (CCC 2271) And that evil extends to anyone who assists in an abortion: “Formal cooperation in an abortion constitutes a grave offense.” (2272) But the awesome truth about our Faith is that there is always hope, always a way back to God. The confessional is always the first stop on our return to God.

“Come now, and let us set things right says the LORD, “Though your sins are as scarlet, They will be as white as snow; Though they are red like crimson, They will be like wool.” (Is. 1:18)

But how many regret their participation in the abortion? Studies are inconsistent on this but according to LifeNews, “grief is much more common, and more intensely felt, than relief.” According to their findings, relief was prominent only among the 30% of women who described their abortions as “wanted and consistent with my values and preferences.” The study showed that 70% reported feeling pressured to abort by other people or circumstances.

Sometimes, however, besides the confessional, we feel the need to talk to someone who has “been there”. This works for such groups as veterans, victims of crime, survivors of illnesses, and the list goes on. It just helps to talk with someone with a shared experience.

Rachel’s Vineyard (from their homepage):

Rachel's Vineyard is a safe place to renew, rebuild and redeem hearts broken by abortion. Weekend retreats offer you a supportive, confidential and nonjudgmental environment where women and men can express, release and reconcile painful post-abortive emotions to begin the process of restoration, renewal and healing. (877) HOPE-4-ME (877-467-3463)

As Catholics we begin with prayer for those who suffer from the effects of participation in an abortion. And while doing so, we are always mindful to support, not judge. For as Jesus said to his disciples:

“Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful.” (Luke 6:36)

¿Cómo es elegido el nuevo Papa?

¿Qué es el cónclave y que significa?

El Papa nuevo es elegido por los Cardenales en lo que se llama el Cónclave. Y ¿Qué es eso?

En el Vaticano, el cónclave es el proceso por el cual los cardenales electores (menores de 80 años) se reúnen en secreto en la Capilla Sixtina para elegir a un nuevo Papa cuando el actual ha muerto o renunciado. La palabra "cónclave" viene del latín "cum clave" que significa "bajo llave", refiriéndose al aislamiento que los cardenales sufren durante el proceso.

En estos días es difícil pensar que haya secretos en cualquier ambiente, pero así es en elegir a nuevo Papa. Los Cardenales escriben el nombre de la persona que desea que sea el Papa, se recogen los papeles y leen los nombres y los cuentan. Si hay más que el número necesario de uno, anuncian su nombre y el es el Papa. Después de cada ronda de votación se queman los papeles y si no hay quórum entonces sale humo negro afuera y la gente sabe que todavía no hay Papa. Cuando salga humo blanco indica que si hay un Papa nuevo. Poca después de que salga el humo blanco se les presentan al público.

Información interesante:

En el mundo hay 221,700 Parroquias

Hay 2,248 Diócesis en el mundo.

Hay 5,600 Entre Obispos y Cardenales

En los Estados Unidos hay 196 diócesis y 260 Obispos.
