YOUTH MASS

1st Sunday of the Month
(Next Sunday, August 3rd)
10am at St. Raymond Church

From Father King

Glory to Jesus Christ!

We thank Fr. Augustine for being with us this weekend. As you know, Father is a missionary to the United States. And he asks us to help the mission in his diocese of Ondo, Nigeria, West Africa.

All of us are called to be missionaries. That does not mean that all of us will travel to other countries, learn to speak new languages, adapt to new and different cultures. But we are still called on Mission. The great “mission statement” of the Church is from St. Matthew, 28:18-20

Jesus came to them and said...Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And I am truly with you always, even to the end of the age.

How can we continue to live this mission? Yes, by supporting Fr. Augustine and the work he does both here and in Nigeria. We can continue to support our own missionary, Fr. Cesar, and his work to the Hispanic community in our region. There is also the (now vast) mission field of those who do not live the Gospel in their own lives.

The question is not “if” we will respond to the missionary call, but “how!”

God bless you!

-Fr. Jamie King

Father Elijah: An Apocalypse by Michael D. O'Brien

This is an audiobook available on FORMED for your listening pleasure.

Michael O'Brien presents a thrilling apocalyptic novel about the condition of the Roman Catholic Church at the end of time. It explores the state of the modern world, and the strengths and weaknesses of the contemporary religious scene, by taking its central character, Father Elijah Schäfer, a Carmelite priest, on a secret mission for the Vatican, which embroils him in a series of crises and subterfuges affecting the ultimate destiny of the Church.

Father Elijah is a convert from Judaism, a survivor of the Holocaust, a man once powerful in Israel. For twenty years he has been "buried in the dark night of Carmel" on the mountain of the prophet Elijah. The Pope and the Cardinal Secretary of State call him out of obscurity and give him a task of the highest sensitivity: to penetrate into the inner circles of a man whom they believe may be the Antichrist. Their purpose: to call the Man of Sin to repentance, and thus to postpone the great tribulation long enough to preach the Gospel to the whole world.

In this richly textured tale, Father Elijah crosses Europe and the Middle East, moves through the echelons of world power, meets saints and sinners, presidents, judges, mystics, embattled Catholic journalists, faithful priests, and a conspiracy of traitors within the very House of God. This is an apocalypse in the old literary sense, but one that was written in the light of Christian revelation.
