Glory to Jesus Christ!

In our second reading today, we hear St. Paul tell us, “Put to death, then, the parts of you that are earthly: immorality, impurity, passion, evil desire, and the greed that is idolatry. Stop lying to one another...” This list is a very simple examination of conscience. Have I had evil desire? How often? Am I greedy? Do I lie? Do I treat my body as a temple of the Holy Spirit? Would I want someone else to treat me the way I treat myself?

It is good to regularly go to confession. Every 4-6 weeks is good. I consider 4 times a year a bare minimum. As Fr. Cesar is fond of saying: how long do you wait to take out the trash? I invite you to make a Summer confession if you have not done so already. And for those who do go to confession every month or so, I challenge you, when is the last time you used a different examination of conscience? Do you ever take one of Paul’s letters and examine yourself in light of it? Have you looked up a new examine?

We don’t confess our sins because we want to wallow in our wrongdoing. We confess because we want to grow and allow the Holy Spirit even greater access to our hearts. In the same way that we “take it easy” in the summer, not to be lazy but to renew, we change our habits not to dwell on our evil but to dwell on God’s mercy and love!

May this summer continue to be an opportunity for rest, renewal, and growth.

God bless you!

-Fr. King

Set-a-Plate for Jesus total count as of July 28th, 2025:

9,957 meals donated by St. John

Solanus Casey:
Priest, Porter,
Prophet

This extraordinary film explores the heroic life of a remarkable, modern-day mystic, Father Solanus Casey, who was relegated to doing little more than being a simple doorman in his monastery. But God would transform the role his superiors assigned him, appointing it a far greater significance to be continued even beyond his earthly life: that of prophet, healer, and intercessor.

Known as a wonder-worker and a powerful instrument of divine healing and hope, he touched countless lives. His untiring attention to the sick and poor, combined with his prayers, wise counsel, and burning faith brought an unprecedented outpouring of grief at his death in 1957. More than twenty thousand people attended the funeral of this selfless American-born priest.

As a part of his canonization process, the exhumation of his body in 1987 revealed him to be "remarkably intact, and well preserved," seemingly defying corruption. One eyewitness was astonished to see a tiny glimpse of Fr. Solanus' piercing blue eyes again after being buried for thirty years!

A gripping story of this priest's simple and unshakable faith in God's love unfolds through interviews with his friends, colleagues, eyewitnesses, biographers, and direct recipients of his healing and prophecy. Rare, never-before-seen film footage and historical photographs are included with actual footage from the exhumation of this exemplary Servant of God.

Back-to-School Opportunity!

Some time ago, Fr. King received a few dozen unsolicited backpacks from a benefactor. The idea arose to find some “Back-to-School Angels”—parishioners interested in filling the backpacks with fresh, new school supplies for children whose families are unable to provide these things for them. If you feel the inkling to be an Angel, please stop in the office to sign-out a Back-to-School backpack and return it to the office by Friday, August 22nd. The backpacks will be distributed to families in need, and you will earn your wings! Ideas: crayons, pencils, markers, notebooks, pencil case, sharpener, gluestick, safety scissors—you get the idea. Thank you!

The Society of St. Vincent de Paul (SVdP) is always looking for new recruits who want to enrich the lives of those less fortunate. We aspire to fill their lives with the words of Jesus and help them with their day to day trials. The three "Essential Elements" of our Society are to nurture our spirituality, enhance friendships among our members and enrich our service to those in need.

We are presently looking to increase our membership with individuals who have an interest to serve others as Vincentians. Additionally, we are in need of two individuals who may be interested in serving in a leadership role as secretary or treasurer. If you have an interest in joining our growing ministry in any capacity, please contact Mary Cormier, President, at 856-535-1636 or at cormmary@yahoo.com. I look forward to hearing from many of you.
