Glory to Jesus Christ! Last week we talked about two Saints who have nearly the same name. Our own patron, St. John Neumann, and the British St. John Newman. Today we will talk a bit more about the Englishman.

St. John Henry Cardinal Newman was quite influential in Christian circles even while he was still an Anglican priest. He was involved in the Oxford Movement, which reintroduced many Catholic elements into the Church of England. After his conversion to Catholicism, Newman wrote a famous work Apologia pro Vita Sua (a Defense of My Life) in which he laid out the reasons for his conversion. His other two most influential works are The Idea of a University which he wrote around the time he was the founding rector of the Catholic University of Dublin, and Essay on the Development of Christian Doctrine. His understanding of how Catholic Doctrine could grow since the Apostolic age is probably the greatest contribution to the history of the Church.

Cardinal Newman was beatified in 2010 by Pope Benedict XVI and canonized a saint in 2019 by Pope Francis. One of Pope Leo's first official acts as Pope has been to name him a Doctor of the Church. He has long been invoked as a patron of Catholic Education: Newman Centers and Societies at college campuses are named for him.

A final quote from St. John Newman: "To be deep in history is to cease to be a Protestant."

To conclude, there are two wonderful Catholic Saints with nearly the same name: St. Neumann is our patron; St. Newman is the newest Doctor of the Church. May both of them intercede for us!

God Bless you!

-Fr. King

Dear Father King,

I write today with immense joy and thankfulness to inform you that earlier this month we had a closing and

Tuesday, July 15th, we received confirmation that the property was officially registered under the name of the Latin Patriarchate.

We deeply appreciate the support we received from you and the parishioners of St. John Neumann Parish who helped make the goal of purchasing the property a reality. Some parishioners continue to send contributions.

July 15th marked the end of a journey and the beginning of a new era during which we will increase our service to the children and families in the West Bank. We will keep you informed as we move forward.

We have asked that a Mass be offered in the Franciscan Sisters of the Eucharist Chapel for the intentions of our benefactors in August.

With deep gratitude,

The Society of St. Vincent de Paul (SVdP) is always looking for new recruits who want to enrich the lives of those less fortunate. We aspire to fill their lives with the words of Jesus and help them with their day to day trials. The three "Essential Elements" of our Society are to nurture our spirituality, enhance friendships among our members and enrich our service to those in need.

We are presently looking to increase our membership with individuals who have an interest to serve others as Vincentians. Additionally, we are in need of two individuals who may be interested in serving in a leadership role as secretary or treasurer. If you have an interest in joining our growing ministry in any capacity, please contact Mary Cormier, President, at 856-535-1636 or at cormmary@yahoo.com. ## El Divino Niño

El Domingo pasado el Padre avisó del comienzo de la novena al Divino Niño. Ojalá, que se hayan inscrito para recibir la imagen del Niño en tu casa. Si no conocen al Divino Niño abajo hay una pequeña explicación para informarse.

La devoción al Divino Niño Jesús es una práctica católica que venera la infancia de Jesús, originada en Colombia con el sacerdote P. Juan del Rizzo en el barrio 20 de Julio de Bogotá, aunque se remonta a prácticas antiguas en Europa. Los fieles, atraídos por la imagen tierna de Jesús niño, piden por los méritos de su infancia, obteniendo gracias, sanaciones y consuelo, y propagan la devoción como forma de honrar su amor y obediencia.

El P. del Rizzo dio a conocer 3 condiciones para obtener favores del Divino Niño:

1°. Ofrecer la Santa Misa durante nueve domingos, confesarse y comulgar al menos en uno de ellos.

2°. Si la persona puede, que done viveres, o su equivalente en dinero, a las familias pobres.

3°. Propagar la devoción al Divino Niño narrando a otros los milagros que Él hace a sus devotos, repartiendo novenas, estampas y almanaques.
