Glory to Jesus Christ!

This coming week the priests of the diocese of Camden will gather with Bishop Williams for our annual Presbyteral Convocation. During this time, the priests and bishop will pray with one another, celebrate Mass each day, learn and reflect, enjoy fellowship, and hear from the Bishop what his pastoral priorities are for the coming year. This annual celebration is one of the few times that the priests really get to spend some quality time together. Fr. Miles will be here, however, to pray the Mass on Tuesday and Wednesday, so all is well.

A heart-filled "thank you" to Corporal Dallas Bohn and Patrolman First Class Michael Nuscis from the Lower Township Police Department who made the "Faith & Blue" event last Saturday evening such a success. The police department gave away goodies and offered an opportunity for our parishioners to greet and ask questions of our officers. It was a great time!

God bless you!

LEAD KINDLY LIGHT

The Life and Message of Blessed John Henry Newman

An influential teacher, a distinguished theologian, a man who endured many trials, a father of souls—Blessed John Henry Newman (1801 - 1890) remains as fresh and relevant today as he was during his lifetime. In this engaging film, Fr. Nicholas Schofield and Fr. Marcus Holden, hosts of several other Ignatius films, present the inspiring story of Newman's life and visit the places in England where he lived and worked. From London to Oxford, from Littlemore to Birmingham, each revealing an important stage of Newman's life. Along the way they explore his writings and teachings, his pastoral zeal for his students and parishioners, his journey of conversion to the Catholic faith, and his enduring message for Christians of today.

Would you like to offer your “two cents” and critique this film? Please submit your “thumbs up” or “thumbs down” brief review for consideration in the bulletin: secretary@parishofstjohnneumann.org

BEREAVEMENT MINISTRY NEWS

A Special Indulgence for the Holy Souls

November is the time in the Liturgical year when the Church calls us to pray for the Holy souls in Purgatory.

From November 1st to the 8th, a plenary indulgence can be granted to the souls of our loved ones or to a soul with no one to pray for them. To gain this plenary indulgence, you must be detached from all sin, visit a cemetery and pray for the dead, make a sacramental confession (within 20 days), receive Holy Communion, and pray for the Pope's intentions (Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory Be) (cfr. Apostolic Constitution on Indulgences nos. 7&8).

The indulgence can be gained on each day from November 1st to the 8th as long as you complete the requirements. One sacramental Confession suffices for several plenary indulgences, but a separate visit to a cemetery, Holy Communion and a separate prayer for the Pope's intentions are required for each plenary indulgence.

During these days in November the members of the Bereavement Ministry plan to visit our local cemeteries to pray for the Holy Souls, and we invite you to do the same.

BINGO—Wednesdays at 1pm and Fridays at 7pm at St. John of God Parish Hall.

You have to play to win!

Considering Cremation: A Thoughtful Decision for Your Final Resting Place

While you may be considering cremation rather than traditional full-body burial, it's important to thoughtfully choose a final resting place for cremated remains. The Church earnestly recommends the pious custom of burying the bodies of the deceased. However, it does not forbid cremation -- unless it has been chosen for reasons which are contrary to Christian teaching. Cremated remains are the body of the deceased in a changed form and, as such, they should be treated with the same respect and dignity as a full body. The Church teaches that cremated remains must be reverently buried or entombed in a sacred place reserved for the burial of the dead. When choosing cremation, several respectful and meaningful options are available, including:

Ground Burial † Granite or Glass Niches † Private Family Cremation Estates

† Placement in an Existing Family Lot, Crypt or Niche

These choices ensure that the remains are honored and remembered in a manner consistent with faith and tradition. Visit SouthJerseyCatholicCemeteries.org to learn more or call us at 855-MyPrePlan (855-697-7375) and a member of our staff will gladly assist you.

“And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back again and take you to myself, so that where I am you also may be.” John 14:3

Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica Los Siete Sacramentos de la Iglesia

Bautismo, Confirmación, Eucaristía, Penitencia, Unción de los enfermos, Orden Sacerdotal y Matrimonio

Capítulo Primero

Los Sacramentos de la Iniciación Cristiana

1212 Mediante los sacramentos de la iniciación cristiana, el Bautismo, la confirmación y la Eucaristía, se ponen los fundamentos de toda vida cristiana. “La participación en la naturaleza divina, que los hombres reciben como don mediante la gracia de Cristo, tiene cierta analogía con el origen, el crecimiento y el sustento de la vida natural. En efecto, los fieles renacidos en el Bautismo se fortalecen con el sacramento de la confirmación y, finalmente, son alimentados en la Eucaristía con el manjar de la vida eterna, y, así por medio de estos sacramentos de la iniciación cristiana, reciben cada vez con mas abundancia los tesoros de la vida divina y avanzan hacia la perfección de la caridad.

Artículo 1 EL SACRAMENTO DEL BAUTISMO

1213 El santo Bautismo es el fundamento de toda la vida cristiana, el pórtico de la vida en el espíritu (“vitae spiritualis ianua”) y la puerta que abre el acceso a los otros sacramentos. Por el Bautismo somos liberados del pecado y regenerados como hijos de Dios, llegamos a ser miembros de Cristo y somos incorporados a la Iglesia y hechos partícipes de su misión: “Baptismus est sacramentum regenerationis per aquam in verbo” (“El bautismo es el sacramento del nuevo nacimiento por el agua y la palabra”)
