Parish Office Hours

Monday through Friday, 9:30am-12pm; 1pm-4pm.

Sacraments

RECONCILIATION - Every Saturday, 2:30pm-3:30pm at St. John of God; every Wednesday prior to 9am daily Mass at St. John of God; every Thursday following 9am Mass at St. John of God; First Saturdays at St. Raymond following 9am Mass; also Monday and Thursday evenings after Mass (Spanish). Confession also available by appointment with a priest at the Parish Office.

BAPTISM - Parents or legal guardians are welcome to call or make an appointment at the office for baptismal preparation. The Sacrament of Baptism is celebrated either after or during one of the Sunday Masses. Godparents will need an eligibility certificate from their proper pastor.

SACRAMENT OF THE SICK - If someone is seriously ill, hospitalized, preparing for surgery, or failing due to advanced age, they are welcome to call for a priest for the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick. Please call the office for arrangements. Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion are available to bring Communion to the home-bound. The sick will be remembered in the bulletin for four (4) weeks; longer if requested to continue.

PREPARATION FOR THE SACRAMENTS OF

EUCCHARIST AND CONFIRMATION - Please enroll your child in our Religious Education Program. Sacraments are given when the parish assesses that the child is ready, usually in the 2nd and 8th grades and after a minimum of 2 years of religious formation. Please call Sr. Kathleen for more information.

SACRAMENT OF MATRIMONY - The future bride or groom may contact the parish office requesting to be married. Marriage preparation usually takes 9-12 months. Please speak to or email one of the priests to confirm a date and arrange preparations.

SACRAMENT OF HOLY ORDERS - If a man from our parish feels he may be called to the priesthood or diaconate, he is invited to speak with Fr. King or Fr. Cesar to explore this calling or call the Office of Vocations: 856-583-2864, or visit: camdenpriest.org.

FUNERALS at either church upon request of the family (typically 10am Viewing, Mass at 11am, burial to follow).

Glory to Jesus Christ!

From Pope Benedict XVI:

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

[W]e are entering the liturgical season of Advent. In the First Letter to the Thessalonians, the Apostle Paul invites us to prepare for "the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ" (5: 23), with God's grace keeping ourselves blameless. The exact word Paul uses is "coming", in Latin adventus, from which the term "Advent" derives.

Let us reflect briefly on the meaning of this word, which can be rendered with "presence", "arrival" or "coming". In the language of the ancient world it was a technical term used to indicate the arrival of an official or the visit of the king or emperor to a province. However, it could also mean the coming of the divinity that emerges from concealment to manifest himself forcefully or that was celebrated as being present in worship. Christians used the word "advent" to express their relationship with Jesus Christ: Jesus is the King who entered this poor "province" called "earth" to pay everyone a visit; he makes all those who believe in him participate in his Coming, all who believe in his presence in the liturgical assembly. The essential meaning of the word adventus was: God is here, he has not withdrawn from the world, he has not deserted us. Even if we cannot see and touch him as we can tangible realities, he is here and comes to visit us in many ways. [Homily, November 28, 2009]

Pope Benedict helps us to understand what Advent is all about. I do invite you to read the remainder of his address available on the Vatican Website.

How does Christ visit us? I will invite you to consider 3 ways: In the Sacraments, in our prayer, and in the poor. First, we encounter Him in the sacrament of the Eucharist both at Mass and then in Adoration. It is His real presence with us. We encounter Him when we have our sins forgiven in Penance. If it has been more than a few months since your last confession, I can think of few better ways to prepare to meet Him than Confession. We meet Him when we spend our personal prayer time with Him each day, whether through praying the Scriptures, the Rosary, or our own dialogue. And we meet him in the poor when we give of ourselves to those who are in need.

I hope that we are all able to have a deeper encounter with Jesus Christ during this time of His "Presence," Arrival," and "Coming."

God bless you!

-Fr. King

Advent Day of Recollection

“Light shines in the darkness: The Spirituality of Mother Teresa and the Missionaries of Charity” with Richard

Macdonald and Fr. King, will take place Saturday, December 13th, at St. John of God, 9am to 12:30pm. Richard grew up in Calcutta, knew Mother Teresa, and has worked with her sisters since childhood. In 2013, Fr. King traveled to India with Richard to walk in Mother's footsteps and volunteer with the Sisters.

The day will include a presentation on personal experiences of working with Mother and the Missionaries of Charity, a film, time for discussion, veneration of a First Class Relic of the Saint, and a time of prayer and Adoration. (Coffee and danish will be served.) More info to come!

What is Advent?

The season of Advent is a time of expectation, when we prepare our home and our hearts to celebrate the birth of Jesus on Christmas

Day. The word Advent is derived from the Latin word adventus, which means "coming".

Advent is a season of hope, a time to nurture peace and experience joy in anticipation for the love that is made incarnate with the birth of Jesus.

Keep this purpose ever in mind as you make your plans to prepare for Christmas. Everything will make sense or become senseless in relation to this purpose. If baking cookies helps you achieve this purpose, bake away. Sitting quietly on a park bench, taking long walks in quiet places, visiting your church each day, reading, singing, serving others...whatever it is that helps you achieve the purpose of Advent, give yourself to those activities.

Wake up each day with this purpose in your heart and on your mind. Purpose has a way of transforming the way we live our lives. Allow the purpose of Advent to transform you. —dynamiccatholic.com

Adoration Schedule

Come, Lord Jesus: Meditations on the Art of Waiting (Audio Book)

formed
Forming Catholics for Life.

These Advent reflections by the abbess of a Poor Clare monastery, an accomplished spiritual writer, focus our attention on the coming of Jesus into our lives. There is a double movement to this coming: both our active preparation to be ready for him and our patient waiting for the Lord to arrive in his own good time. There is also an art to this simultaneous preparation and waiting, and no one knows better than the beloved Mother Mary Francis how to encourage us in our attempts to master this art.

Meditating on passages from Scripture about the coming of the Messiah into the world and our hearts, Mother challenges us to persevere in overcoming our faults and keeping our eyes on the Lord who has called us to himself--for it is he, through the gifts of his grace, who will complete in us the work of sanctification that he has begun.

As we get closer to the birthday of the Christ Child, it's time for the Christ Child Society to put up the "Giving Tree." Just as the little Christ child did not have much in the way of material things, so do many of the children who live in our area. Each ball on the tree will represent a gift given to the Christ Child and then to the child in need.

This year our tree will be up on Saturday, November 29th, at both St. John and St. Raymond churches. The organizations who will be the recipients of the gifts are: CARA (The Coalition of Rape & Abuse), Caring for Kids, Cape Hope, Division of Child Protection and Permanency (DYFUS), Family Promise, Healthy Family, Nurse Family Practitioners, Shore Family Success, Spanish Outreach, and Society of St. Vincent de Paul.

Please securely attach a tag to the gift. Do NOT wrap it or place it in a gift bag. Kindly return it by December 15th. Gifts will then be sorted and given to the various agencies.

Over the years, the parishioners of St. John Neumann have been extremely generous. Thank you in advance for helping God's children in need.

"Nothing is ever too much to do for a child."

Set-a-Plate for Jesus total count as of November 19th, 2025:

10,570 meals donated by St. John Neumann parishioners!

Happening Now!

Please begin going through your closets, as we sponsor once again our annual Coat Drive. Receptacles will be available in the vestibules of both churches in which to place your clean and gently used or new winter coats. We are collecting ALL sizes (especially children's) for those less fortunate. Please check pockets before donating, and thank you in advance!

Prayers for Our Priests

We are in need of volunteers to pray for our priests. If you can spend one hour a week praying for our priests, please call Pat Stelacio at 267-566-5574. If you are only available occasionally, please sign-up to be a substitute. We really need you!

On Tuesday, December 16th, at 7pm, the John Walter Band, the Community Concert Band of Cape May County, will perform "A Musical Celebration of the Holidays" at St. John of God Parish Hall. The concert is free to all and will feature many popular holiday favorites. Mark your calendar!

Have you watched any video presentations on Formed? If so, what did you think? We are looking for parishioners who would like to offer their review of the shows/films Formed has to offer and to recommend them (or not) for others. Just a few lines will do the trick. Thumbs up or down? Please email your reviews to:

FIRST SUNDAY OF ADVENT

Directions

- [1] Color the tree green, write your good deeds on the ornaments and color them in.
- [2] Cut out and fold at right angle to stand up by itself.
- [3] Each week of Advent complete the tree and repeat steps 1-2.
- [4] After you have 4 weeks of trees colored, filled in and cut out, attach week 1 to week 2 by matching the corner letters and gluing or taping halves together up to the fold line. Do the same for week 3 and week 4, which will then attach to week 1 and 2 to complete.

Color tree and fill in good deeds, then color ornaments and cut out.

Weeks 1 & 2 together.

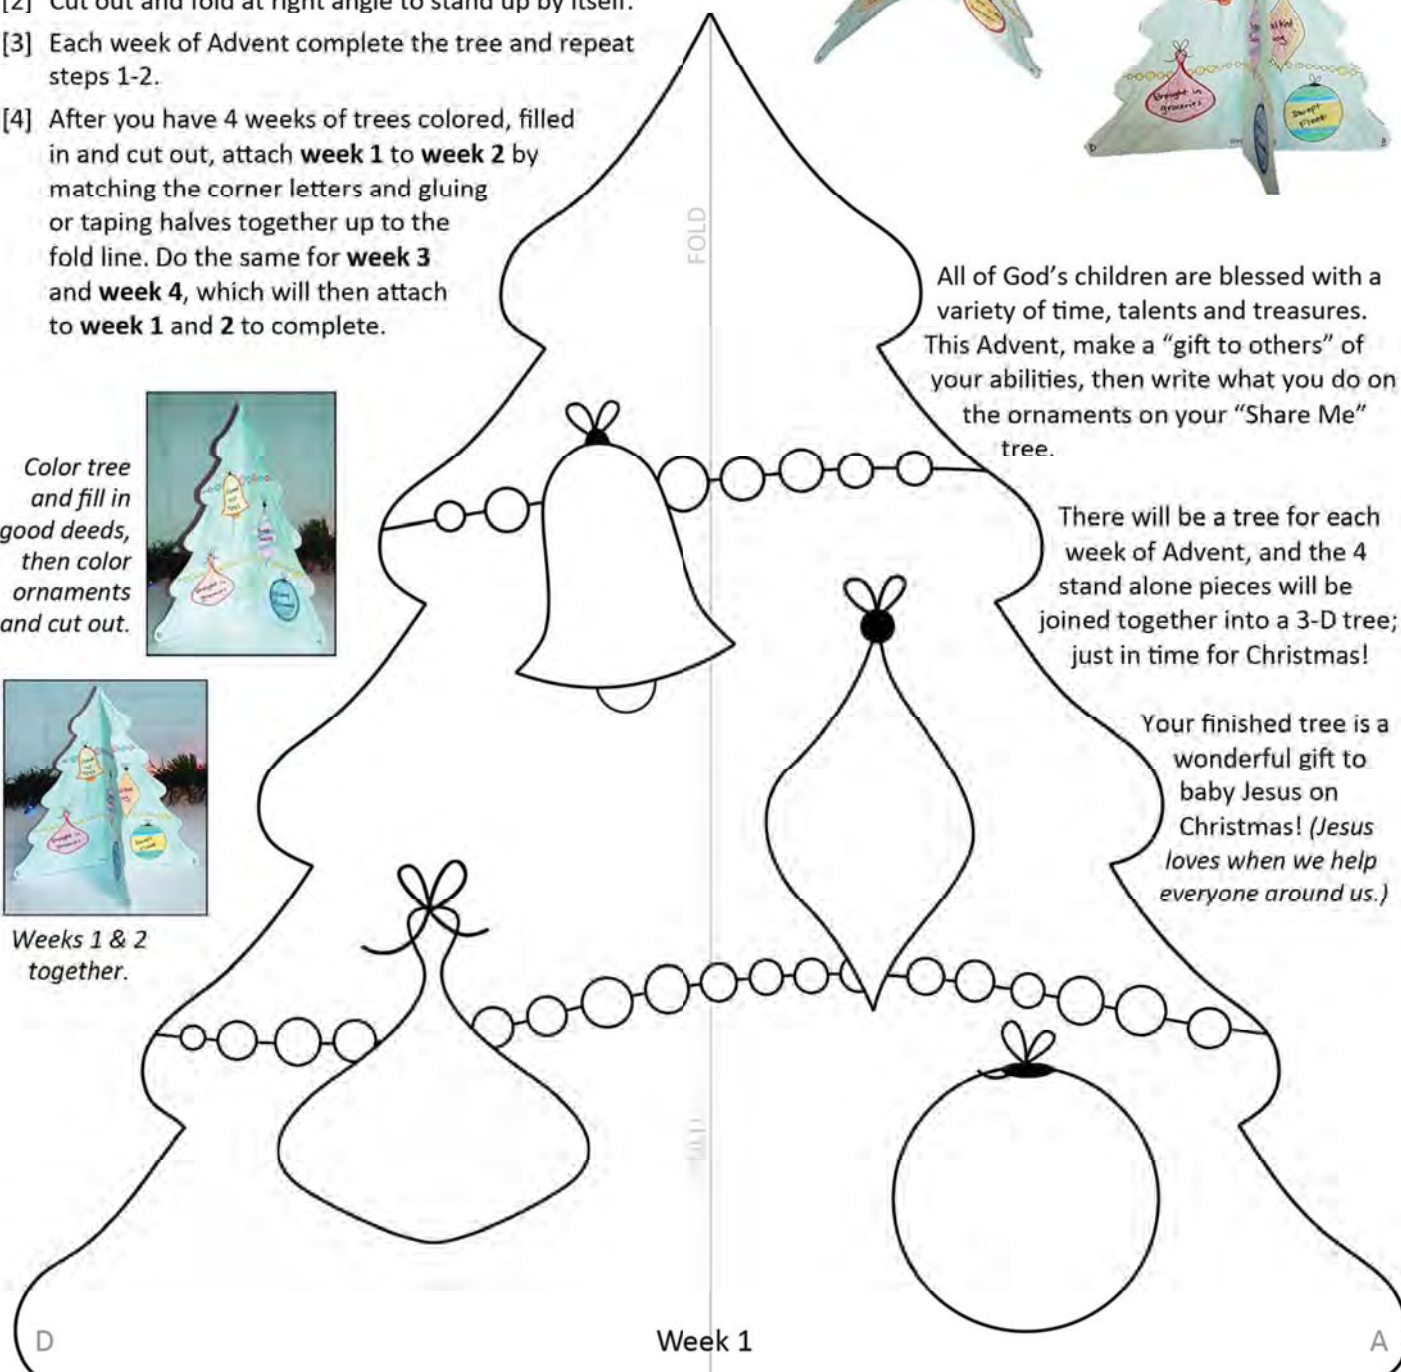

Different angles of completed tree.

All of God's children are blessed with a variety of time, talents and treasures. This Advent, make a "gift to others" of your abilities, then write what you do on the ornaments on your "Share Me" tree.

There will be a tree for each week of Advent, and the 4 stand alone pieces will be joined together into a 3-D tree; just in time for Christmas!

Your finished tree is a wonderful gift to baby Jesus on Christmas! (Jesus loves when we help everyone around us.)

Los Sacramentos de la Iniciación Cristiana

Artículo 1 EL SACRAMENTO DEL BAUTISMO

III LA CELEBRACIÓN DEL SACRAMENTO DEL BAUTISMO

La iniciación cristiana

1229 Desde los tiempos apostólicos, para llegar a ser cristiano se sigue un camino y una iniciación que consta de varias etapas. Este camino puede ser recorrido rápida o lentamente. Y comprende siempre algunos elementos esenciales: el anuncio de la Palabra, la acogida del Evangelio que lleva a la conversión, la profesión de fe, el Bautismo, la efusión del Espíritu Santo, el acceso a la comunión eucarística.

1230 Esta iniciación ha variado mucho a lo largo de los siglos y según las circunstancias. En los primeros siglos de la Iglesia, la iniciación cristiana conoció un gran desarrollo, con un largo periodo de catecumenado, y una serie de ritos preparatorios que jalonaban litúrgicamente el camino de la preparación catecumenal y que desembocaban en la celebración de los sacramentos de la iniciación cristiana.

1231 Desde que el Bautismo de los niños vino a ser la forma habitual de celebración de este sacramento, ésta se ha convertido en un acto único que integra de manera muy abreviada las etapas previas a la iniciación cristiana. Por su naturaleza misma, el Bautismo de niños exige un catecumenado postbautismal. No se trata sólo de la necesidad de una instrucción posterior al Bautismo, sino del desarrollo necesario de la gracia bautismal en el crecimiento de la persona. Es el momento propio de la catechesis.

1232 El Concilio Vaticano II ha restaurado, para la Iglesia latina, “el catecumenado de adultos, dividido en diversos grados”. Sus ritos se encuentran en el Ordo initiationis christianae adultorum (1972). Por otra parte, el Concilio ha permitido que “en tierras de misión, además de los elementos de iniciación contenidos en la tradición cristiana, pueden admitirse también aquellos que se encuentran en uso en cada pueblo siempre que puedan acomodarse al rito cristiano”.
