Glory to Jesus Christ!

This is a selection from +Pope Benedict XVI's Urbi et Orbi message of 2012:

“Kindness and truth shall meet; / justice and peace shall kiss. / Truth shall spring out of the earth, / and justice shall look down from heaven. / The Lord himself will give his benefits; / our land shall yield its increase. / Justice shall walk before him, / and salvation, along the way of his steps” (Ps 85:11-14).

Today these prophetic words have been fulfilled! In Jesus, born in Bethlehem of the Virgin Mary, kindness and truth do indeed meet; justice and peace have kissed; truth has sprung out of the earth and justice has looked down from heaven. Saint Augustine explains with admirable brevity: “What is truth? The Son of God. What is the earth? The flesh. Ask whence Christ has been born, and you will see that truth has sprung out of the earth ... truth has been born of the Virgin Mary” (En. in Ps. 84:13). And in a Christmas sermon he says that “in this yearly feast we celebrate that day when the prophecy was fulfilled: ‘truth shall spring out of the earth, and justice shall look down from heaven’. The Truth, which is in the bosom of the Father has sprung out of the earth, to be in the womb of a mother too. The Truth which rules the whole world has sprung out of the earth, to be held in the arms of a woman ... The Truth which heaven cannot contain has sprung out of the earth, to be laid in a manger. For whose benefit did so lofty a God become so lowly? Certainly not for his own, but for our great benefit, if we believe” (Sermons, 185, 1).

“If we believe”. Here we see the power of faith! God has done everything; he has done the impossible: he was made flesh. His all-powerful love has accomplished something which surpasses all human understanding: the Infinite has become a child, has entered the human family. And yet, this same God cannot enter my heart unless I open the door to him. Porta fidei! The door of faith! We could be frightened by this, our inverse omnipotence. This human ability to be closed to God can make us fearful. But see the reality which chases away this gloomy thought, the hope that conquers fear: truth has sprung up! God is born! “The earth has yielded its fruits” (Ps 67:7).”

My prayer this Christmas season is that we may all find it in our hearts to be good soil!

God bless you! Merry Christmas!

-Fr. King

PARISH FEAST DAY PARTY

We will start off the new year right as a parish family! It's the feast day of St. John Neumann on January 5th, but we will celebrate it the day before, honoring our patron by sharing a covered dish meal together on Sunday, January 4th, at St. John of God Parish Hall from 2pm-5pm. Like last year, we ask that you please call the office to advise of the number attending from your family, and what dish you will be bringing. This will help us to plan more efficiently. (We can also suggest items for you to bring to balance out the menu items of others.)

Last year we had a wonderful afternoon together and enjoyed some delicious food! It is truly a good time. Please join us!

Age 73 or better? Your generosity can go further!

If you're taking Required Minimum Distributions from your IRA, consider a Qualified Charitable Distribution (QCD)—a wonderful way to support God's work while reducing your taxable income.

Your QCD can directly benefit:

St. John Neumann Parish - sustaining our spiritual home;

Our Church Building & Ministries - maintaining sacred spaces for worship;

St. Vincent de Paul Society - serving Christ in our neighbors.

The blessing is twofold: You fulfill your RMD requirement AND make a tax-free gift up to $105,000 annually. It's stewardship that serves both heaven and earth!

Contact your IRA administrator to arrange a direct transfer, or speak with our parish office for guidance. We're here to help!

Jesus, Mary and Joseph,
in you we contemplate
the splendor of true love;
to you we turn with trust.

Holy Family of Nazareth,
grant that our families too
may be places of communion and prayer, authentic schools of the Gospel
and small domestic churches.

Holy Family of Nazareth,
may families never again experience
violence, rejection and division;
may all who have been hurt or scandalized
find ready comfort and healing.

Holy Family of Nazareth,
make us once more mindful of the sacredness and inviolability of the family,
and its beauty in God's plan.

Jesus, Mary and Joseph,
graciously hear our prayer.

Amen.
