PARISH FEAST DAY PARTY

Sunday, January 4th, 2pm-5pm
St. John of God Hall
Covered Dish—See you there!

From Father King

Christ is Born for us! Come let us Adore Him!

Today we liturgically celebrate the Solemnity of the Epiphany. On this day, Christ is “manifest to the nations” when the Magi came to visit Him. Christ continues to make Himself known in the Sacred Liturgy, in His Word, and through our proclamation of His Good News.

Tomorrow we celebrate the Feast of our parish Patron, St. John Neumann. St. John was a great missionary of the 19th century. He was not the sort of missionary who was bringing the Gospel to those who had never heard it before, rather, it was bringing the Good News to those who needed strength in their faith. For him, it was the immigrants of the early 19th century who were living as farmers and workers in poverty, far away from their homelands.

Like St. John Neumann, we are called to be missionaries to those who need strength in their faith. Yes, the immigrants and the impoverished, but also those who are weary from the many demands and anxieties of the world. Though we might not need to leave our homes as St. John did, we will need to step out of our comfort zones to give witness to Christ.

May St. John Neumann inspire us by his life and preaching, and may he intercede for us from his blessed abode with all the elect in Heaven!

Christ is Born for us! Come Let us Adore Him!

-Fr. King

P.S. Hope to see you at the Feast Day Party!

IT IS STILL CHRISTMAS!

Christmas is one of the most important days of the Church year, second only to Easter itself. Celebrating the birth of the Lord Jesus Christ, it is the culmination of the mystery of the incarnation, the feast of God becoming flesh (the Latin "in carne" means "enfleshment"). It is a uniquely Christian teaching, the Divine choosing to become one of us. Because of this belief, God is not only Transcendent, but also wholly Immanent, Emmanuel (God-with-us). While remaining Transcendent (meaning we must rise above our present condition to reach Him), He is at the same time Immanent (meaning He is with us as we rise toward Him). Every Eucharist is like Christmas where the bread and wine are transformed into His flesh, His Body and Blood, and, in a sense, He is born anew on the altar.

The liturgical season of Christmas begins with the vigil Masses on Christmas Eve and concludes on the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord. During this season, we celebrate the birth of Christ into our world and into our hearts and reflect on the gift of salvation that is born with him, including the fact that he was born to die for us.

The Christmas tree and the Nativity scene are popular symbols of the season and a tradition in many Christian homes. It is also traditional to exchange Christmas gifts with family and friends to honor God the Father's gift of his only son to the world. Having received the gift of Christ, we naturally want to pass that gift along to our loved ones.

—USCCB.org

If you would like to bring up the gifts at Mass, please see the head usher: Mike Gallagher (4pm Vigil), Joe Mendoza (8am), or Stan Markiewicz (10am). Preference will be given to the family members for whom the Mass is offered, but it is "first come, first served." Any questions, please speak to the ushers. Thank you!

THE HOLY NAME SOCIETY

The Holy Name Society in our parish is part of the National Holy Name Society organization and is open to Catholic men of all ages. The main obligations of each member is to promote reverence for the sacred names of God and Jesus. The essential obligation of a Holy Name member might be summed up in the first petition of the Our Father, "Hallowed be thy name." Our members are active in many of our parish ministries and, as an organization, we help support other ministries. The Chapter meets the first Wednesday of the month at 2pm in the large meeting room at St. John of God campus.

We also publicly proclaim our love for Jesus Christ by attending Mass and receiving Holy Communion as a group at the 10am Mass on the second Sunday of each month at St. John of God.

We hope to increase our numbers so, if any gentlemen are interested in joining or if you would like more information about the Holy Name Society, please contact Jerome Marshall at: m1968jerome@gmail.com

Have you watched any video presentations on Formed? If so, what did you think? We are looking for parishioners who would like to offer their review of the shows/films Formed has to offer and to recommend them (or not) for others. Just a few lines will do the trick. Thumbs up or down? Please email your reviews to:

This book is the fruit of Fr. Dubay's many years of study and experience in spiritual direction and in it he synthesizes the teachings on prayer of the two great doctors of the Church --St. John of the Cross and St. Teresa of Avila --and the teaching of Sacred Scripture.

But the teaching that Fr. Dubay synthesized is not collected from Teresa and John for contemplatives alone. It is meant for every Christian and is based on the Gospel imperative of personal prayer and the call to holiness. All the major elements of these great teachers are ordered, commented on and put in the context of their scriptural foundations. Here is an outstanding book on prayer and the spiritual life written by one of the best spiritual directors and retreat masters of our time, and based on the writings of the Church's two greatest mystical doctors.

Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica

Los Siete Sacramentos de la Iglesia

Bautismo, Confirmación, Eucarística, Penitencia, Unción de los enfermos, Orden Sacerdotal y Matrimonio

Capítulo Primero

Los Sacramentos de la Iniciación Cristiana

Artículo 1 EL SACRAMENTO DEL BAUTISMO

III LA CELEBRACIÓN DEL SACRAMENTO DEL BAUTISMO

El Bautismo de adultos

1247 En los orígenes de la Iglesia, cuando el anuncio del Evangelio está aún en sus primeros tiempos, el Bautismo de adultos es la práctica más común. El catecumenado (preparación para el Bautismo) ocupa entonces un lugar importante. Iniciación a la fe y a la vida cristiana, el catecumenado debe disponer a recibir el don de Dios en el Bautismo, la Confirmación y la Eucaristía.

1248 El catecumenado, o formación de los catecúmenos, tiene por finalidad permitir a estos últimos, en respuesta a la iniciativa divina y en unión con una comunidad eclesial, llevar a madurez su conversión y su fe. Se trata de una "formación, aprendizaje o noviciado debidamente prolongado de la vida cristiana, en que los discípulos se unen con Cristo, su Maestro. Por lo tanto, hay que iniciar adecuadamente a los catecúmenos en el misterio de la salvación, en la práctica de las costumbres evangélicas y en los ritos sagrados que deben celebrarse en los tiempos sucesivos, e introducirlos en la vida de fe, la liturgia y la caridad del Pueblo de Dios" (AG 14; cf. Ritual de iniciación cristiana de adultos, Prenotandos 19; Ibid., Sobre el tiempo del catecumenado y de sus ritos 98).

1249 Los catecúmenos "están ya unidos a la Iglesia, pertenecen ya a la casa de Cristo y muchas veces llevan ya una vida de fe, esperanza y caridad" (AG 14). "La madre Iglesia los abraza ya con amor tomándolos a sus cargo" (LG 14; cf. CIC can. 206; 788).
