Statement from Bishop Joseph Williams on Settlement with Sexual Abuse Survivors:

My Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

I write to you today with news of profound significance for the Catholic Church of South Jersey and especially for those who have been harmed by clergy sexual abuse. Last week, the Official Committee of Tort Claimant Creditors (the Survivors' Committee) unanimously agreed to accept the terms of a final bankruptcy settlement with the Diocese of Camden. The proposed plan establishes a trust of $180 million, funded by the Diocese, its Parishes and the various insurers that insured the Diocese in the past, which will be made available to resolve all claims of abuse upon approval by the Bankruptcy Court. For the survivors of South Jersey, this day is long overdue and represents a milestone in their journey toward restored justice and the healing and recognition they have long sought and deserve.

To each one of those survivors, I would like to say: Thank you for your courage in coming forward. Without your bravery and persistence, this new day would not have dawned. I am profoundly sorry for what you have suffered. It was a grave sin and a devastating betrayal of the trust you placed in the Church that you loved. I cannot remove the scars you carry nor restore the innocence you lost, but on behalf of my predecessors and the faithful of Camden I can say clearly and without reservation: We believe you, we are sorry and we are committed to walking a different path going forward with you, God willing, at our side.

[The full statement can be read on the Diocesan website and Social Media pages.]

-Bishop Williams

Though the bankruptcy first appeared settled two years ago, the insurance companies fought the settlement until now. With our bishop, join in praying for the victims of abuse. May this begin a new chapter of the life of our local church here in South Jersey.

God bless you!

-Fr. King

This Lent, walk the road to Calvary with those who witnessed the Passion firsthand.

Join Dominican friar and beloved Godsplain-ing podcaster Fr. Patrick Mary Briscoe, OP, for a transformative Lenten journey. In his new daily devotional Witness, you'll encounter the people of the Bible who stood face-to-face with Christ in his Passion—saints and sinners, friends and enemies, the faithful and the afraid.

From the Good Thief to Pontius Pilate, Martha to Barabbas, these biblical figures reveal the depths of the human heart—flawed, fearful, hopeful, and deeply loved.

Witness is more than a devotional—it's an invitation to step onto the dusty roads of Jerusalem and let the miracle of redemption unfold again in your own life.

Altar Flowers

Just a reminder that, during Lent, we will not have flowers on the altar with the exception of the 4th Sunday of Lent (March 15th), St. Joseph's Day (March 19th), and the Annunciation (March 25th). Thank you!

REGULATIONS ON FASTING & ABSTINENCE

Fasting and abstinence have a long history in the Church. The custom of self-denial is meant to simplify one's life so that freed from all distractions, we may hear and respond to God's continued call to conversion and holiness.

FASTING is to be observed on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday by all Catholics between the ages of 18 to 59 years inclusive. On days of fasting, one full meal is allowed. Two smaller meals, sufficient to maintain strength, may be taken according to one's needs, but together should not equal another full meal. Liquids are allowed.

ABSTINENCE from meat is to be observed by all Catholics who are 14 years of age or older. Ash Wednesday, all the Fridays of Lent, and Good Friday are days of abstinence. PASTORAL NOTE: Persons unable to observe the above regulations due to ill health or other serious reasons may practice other forms of self-denial that are suitable to their condition.

Think about this mystery before praying.
In the Garden of Gethsemane Jesus prayed to God about what was to take place.

This week: Say an Our Father and color the large bead - say 10 Hail Mary's and color each small bead. End with the Glory Be to the Father. Think about Jesus praying to God, "Thy will be done".

Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica Los Siete Sacramentos de la Iglesia

Bautismo, Confirmación, Eucarística, Penitencia, Unción de los enfermos, Orden Sacerdotal y Matrimonio

Capítulo Primero

Los Sacramentos de la Iniciación Cristiana

Artículo 1 EL SACRAMENTO DEL BAUTISMO

VII LA GRACIA DEL BAUTISMO

1262 Los distintos efectos del Bautismo son significados por los elementos sensibles del rito sacramental. La inmersión en el agua evoca los simbolismos de la muerte y de la purificación, pero también los de la regeneración y de la renovación. Los dos efectos principales, por tanto, son la purificación de los pecados y el nuevo nacimiento en el Espíritu Santo (cf Hch 2,38; Jn 3,5).

Para la remisión de los pecados...

1263 Por el Bautismo, todos los pecados son perdonados, el pecado original y todos los pecados personales así como todas las penas del pecado (cf DS 1316). En efecto, en los que han sido regenerados no permanece nada que les impida entrar en el Reino de Dios, ni el pecado de Adán, ni el pecado personal, ni las consecuencias del pecado, la más grave de las cuales es la separación de Dios.

1264 No obstante, en el bautizado permanecen ciertas consecuencias temporales del pecado, como los sufrimientos, la enfermedad, la muerte o las fragilidades inherentes a la vida como las debilidades de carácter, etc., así como una inclinación al pecado que la Tradición llama concupiscencia, o metafóricamente fomes peccati: «La concupiscencia, dejada para el combate, no puede dañar a los que no la consienten y la resisten con coraje por la gracia de Jesucristo. Antes bien "el que legítimamente luchare, será coronado" (2 Tm 2,5)» (Concilio de Trento: DS 1515).

¿Qué son las intenciones para la Santa Misa y por qué son importantes?

Ofrecer una intención para la Santa Misa es una hermosa y antigua tradición. Consiste en pedir que la Misa se celebre de manera especial por una persona o una intención concreta, como por ejemplo:

Un familiar fallecido

Una persona enferma

Una necesidad especial

Acción de gracias por un favor recibido

La paz, la familia o una situación difícil

De manera especial, la Iglesia nos invita a ofrecer intenciones por nuestros difuntos. Al hacerlo, oramos para que el Señor, en su infinita misericordia, les conceda el descanso eterno y la plenitud de su presencia. Esto es una obra de misericordia espiritual y una expresión de amor que trasciende la muerte.

Para colocar cualquier intención, puede acercarse a la oficina.
