Christ is risen!

It is with sadness that I write this bulletin column. Last Sunday, Fr. Cesar and I announced at our respective Masses that Bishop Williams has transferred both of us to different assignments effective July 1st. Fr. Cesar has been named the Director of Prison Ministry for the Diocese as well as an Assistant Vocations Director. I have been named the Pastor of St. Mary of Mt. Carmel Parish in Hammonton, NJ. I know that this will be a difficult change for all of us, especially since we are still working through the IHM Sisters leaving.

Fr. Cesar has been the impetus behind so many of the wonderful things we have done here: 40 Hours Devotion, Bible Studies, the Food Pantry, Youth Group, pilgrimages and, of course, helping to completely transform Hispanic Ministry in Cape May County. He is a hard working and dedicated priest, especially shepherding the Latino community.

We have also done some of the nuts-and-bolts work of obtaining the Safety and Security Grant for St. Raymond Campus, new boilers, six new roofs, air conditioners, new TVs for Religious Education, and so much more.

This was my first pastorate. I know that every future assignment will be weighed against my time here. Transfers are a part of priestly life. As I related at some of the Masses this past weekend: it is not just the promise of obedience that is difficult for a priest, but also the promise of celibacy. You have been my family these four years. And you will always hold a place in my heart. I thank you for the honor and privilege of serving with you.

Some have asked about a going away celebration. As things become clearer, we will make them known both here and in the announcements.

God bless you always!

-Fr. King

Parish Food Pantry News

Good day, parishioners! Firstly, the Food Pantry and the Society of St. Vincent de Paul at St. John Neumann Conference (SVdP) staff wish to THANK YOU for all of the help you are giving. With your assistance, we have been able to feed between 25 and 30 families each week. After piloting this for several weeks, we are ready to open up to our entire parish on May 14th. We will service anyone from our parish between 4:30pm and 7pm on Thursdays. At this point, we have only non-perishables. We also have been servicing, as the need arises, a few of our SVdP “neighbors.” We look forward to seeing you at church and at our pantry. Again, thank you for your goodness and service! May God Bless you.

Banns of Ordination to the Presbyter

The Most Reverend Joseph A. Williams, D.D. announces that he intends to ordain Mr. Nickolas B. Naticchione to the Sacred Order of Presbyter on Saturday, the 16th day of May, 2026 at The Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception, 642 Market Street, Camden, New Jersey.

The faithful of the Diocese of Camden are asked to pray for this man and for the young men of our diocese who are being called by God to service in the Church. At the same time the faithful are obliged to reveal impediments to sacred orders, if they know of any, by contacting their pastor before the ordination in accord with the norms of cc. 1043 and 1051.2 of the Code of Canon Law.

Mary Immaculate, patroness of the Diocese of Camden, intercede for these men and for an increase in vocations to the priesthood here in South Jersey.

I.H.M. CELEBRATION AND FAREWELL

Father King has informed us that at the end of June the Immaculate Heart of Mary Sisters will withdraw their presence at St. John Neumann Parish. They have been here since 1962 when the school at St. Raymond opened and have remained here in various capacities since the school closed in 2008. We will not only see the loss of the I.H.M. presence but also our personal loss of some incredible people: Sister Kathleen, Sister JoAnna, Sister Marie, and Sister Anne. It will be a difficult loss, but St. John Neumann is a vibrant parish and together we will survive this. In the meantime, it is the intention of Father King and this parish to not only celebrate 64 years of I.H.M. contributions, but also say goodbye to those Sisters still here. And as such, there will be a Mass and celebration in their honor:

- Mass: June 13th at 5pm in St. Raymond Church
- Buffet and celebration immediately following Mass in St. Raymond Hall

It must be noted that there will be the normal 4pm Vigil Mass at St. John of God Church.

In order to plan for food and set-ups, it is important that you contact the office (609-884-1656) in advance to let us know you will be coming. There is no charge and no tickets for entrance; however, this event is limited to parishioners only and invited guests of the Sisters and the Parish. Any parish group or ministry that wishes to say a few short words at the event will also kindly let us know in advance. We are also looking for some photos from old of the Sisters and of the school. And if there are some former students out there who wish to give us a quote or two, that would be appreciated. If you can, please drop copies at the office or email to michaelebeck@comcast.net.

CURRENT NEEDS OF OUR FOOD PANTRY

Have you watched any video presentations on Formed?

If so, what did you think? We are looking for parishioners who would like to offer their review of the shows/films/audio-books Formed has to offer and to recommend them (or not) for others. Just a few lines will do the trick. Thumbs up or down? Please email your reviews to: secretary@parishofstjohnneumann.org

Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica Los Siete Sacramentos de la Iglesia

Bautismo, Confirmación, Eucarística, Penitencia, Unción de los enfermos, Orden Sacerdotal y Matrimonio

Capítulo Primero

Los Sacramentos de la Iniciación Cristiana

Artículo 2 EL SACRAMENTO DE LA CONFIRMACIÓN

1291 Una costumbre de la Iglesia de Roma facilitó el desarrollo de la práctica occidental; había una doble unción con el santo crisma después del Bautismo: realizada ya una por el presbítero al neófito al salir del baño bautismal, es completada por una segunda unción hecha por el obispo en la frente de cada uno de los recién bautizados (cf San Hipólito Romano, Traditio apostolica, 21). La primera unción con el santo crisma, la que daba el sacerdote, quedó unida al rito bautismal; significa la participación del bautizado en las funciones profética, sacerdotal y real de Cristo. Si el Bautismo es conferido a un adulto, sólo hay una unción postbautismal: la de la Confirmación.

1292 La práctica de las Iglesias de Oriente destaca más la unidad de la iniciación cristiana. La de la Iglesia latina expresa más netamente la comunión del nuevo cristiano con su obispo, garante y servidor de la unidad de su Iglesia, de su catolicidad y su apostolicidad, y por ello, el vínculo con los orígenes apostólicos de la Iglesia de Cristo.

II. Los signos y el rito de la Confirmación

1293 En el rito de este sacramento conviene considerar el signo de la unción y lo que la unción designa e imprime: el sello espiritual.

La unción, en el simbolismo bíblico y antiguo, posee numerosas significaciones: el aceite es signo de abundancia (cf Dt 11,14, etc.) y de alegría (cf Sal 23,5; 104,15); purifica (unción antes y después del baño) y da agilidad (la unción de los atletas y de los luchadores); es signo de curación, pues suaviza las contusiones y las heridas (cf Is 1,6; Lc 10,34) y el unguento irradia belleza, santidad y fuerza.

1294 Todas estas significaciones de la unción con aceite se encuentran en la vida sacramental. La unción antes del Bautismo con el óleo de los catecúmenos significa purificación y fortaleza; la unción de los enfermos expresa curación y consuelo. La unción del santo crisma después del Bautismo, en la Confirmación y en la Ordenación, es el signo de una consagración. Por la Confirmación, los cristianos, es decir, los que son ungidos, participan más plenamente en la misión de Jesucristo y en la plenitud del Espíritu Santo que éste posee, a fin de que toda su vida desprenda "el buen olor de Cristo" (cf 2 Co 2,15).
