A FRESH PERSPECTIVE ON THE SUNDAY READINGS

HIS WORD TODAY

by Rev. William J. Reilly
Most Holy Name Catholic Church
Garfield, NJ

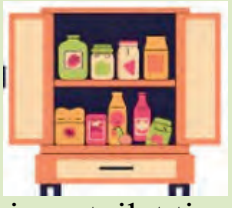

Thirty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time
November 8, 2026

"We do not want you to be unaware, brothers and sisters, about those who have fallen asleep, so that you may not grieve like the rest, who have no hope. For if we believe that Jesus died and rose, so too will God, through Jesus, bring with him those who have fallen asleep."

It is not that we are unaware, we prefer to ignore the topic altogether. In this month of November, as we reflect on the saints in glory and the souls in purgatory, how essential that we reflect upon our final destiny, and the words of Saint Paul, because we have no hope. He tells us 'hope does not disappoint.'

May I live my daily life as a pilgrim leading me one day to my life with the Lord in eternal glory, not just struggling to make my way through daily drudgery, difficulty and passing joy. We are told 'eye has not seen, nor ear heard what God has waiting for those who love Him.'

Our parish's Food Pantry does a great job helping out food-insecure families in the area. It is open every Thursday from 2pm-5pm, and by appointment. Your ongoing generosity in this endeavor is really something wonderful! This will be a special effort for Thanksgiving.

Grocery bags will be handed out at all weekend Masses November 8th and 15th, and you are asked to return them filled with non-perishable items the weekend of November 22nd. Please walk them into the church and place them on the altar as directed prior to the start of Mass.

Have you watched any video presentations on Formed? If so, what did you think? We are looking for parishioners who would like to offer their review of the shows/films/audio-books Formed has to offer and to recommend them (or not) for others. Just a few lines will do the trick. Thumbs up or down? Please email your reviews to: secretary@parishofstjohnneumann.org

We would love to hear from you! We haven't heard from anyone in quite a while. Do you have any favorite podcasts you can recommend to others? Please do. Thank you!

Respect Life!

Let us pray for the sick, suffering, and those near death - may they receive adequate care which embraces their physical, psychological, and spiritual needs as they journey toward eternal life. Amen.

We all have very real questions about death. What happens when we die? What does Scripture teach about death? How do we prepare for the life to come? Explore the mystery of death, dying, and everlasting life through Eternal Rest, a new offering of the Augustine Institute. Eternal Rest examines the origin of death, the afterlife, and the powerful reality around the sacrament that ushers us into eternal life. Eternal Rest presents the Catholic Church's teaching about death and God's response to it with wisdom and truth, gentleness and compassion, so we can think about and prepare for death in the light of Jesus Christ, the Author of life.

We pray that through Eternal Rest, God may give you greater peace, solace, and perspective. In addition to watching the film series, visit EternalRest.org for practical resources, including 60+ videos of experts answering common questions about end-of-life medical care, funerals, legal documents, grief, and more. Purchase the Eternal Rest study guide on Catholic Market.

Be sure to check out all the great Catholic content on FORMED if you haven't already!

A Rosary crusade for the sanctification of our youth and for vocations to religious life, especially young men for the priesthood and, in particular in the Diocese of Camden, is underway in our Parish of St. John Neumann. It is sponsored by Lay Dominicans. If you would like to participate, you will be assigned a decade to pray daily. As a parish we will offer Our Lady 20 decades each day for the youth of our parish and religious vocations. Everyone who would like to join the St. John Neumann rosary crusade, please email Barbara Faver at barbara.faver@comcast.net. or you may call and leave a message for Barbara at 609-898-1865.

Free dinner donated by the BINGO group will be provided to all the families who attend this evening.

The St. John Neumann Council Knights of Columbus will hold its Annual Memorial Mass at St. Raymond Church on November 14th at 11am, followed by a lite luncheon at our Council Hall in the Villas behind St. Raymond Church. The Mass is to remember those Knights, our brothers, who passed away or were reported deceased to our Council since November 2025, the date of our last Memorial Mass. We also extend the invite to some of our brothers going back several years. All deceased brothers' wives and families are invited. Included in Mass is a Memorial Rite, and we would like the widows, past widows and/or immediate family members to participate in this ceremony if possible. A lite luncheon and refreshments will be served at the conclusion of the Mass.

Fraternally yours,
Michael Calandra
Grand Knight

We are still looking for a few volunteers for our PowerPoint Ministry. Have you been wanting to share your talents with the parish but haven't figured out how? This is something you can be taught to do very easily, and it is also something that is VERY important to all of our liturgies. Please contact the Parish Office to find out more at 609-884-1656. Thank you! WE REALLY NEED YOU.

Do you need prayer? Besides our published Sick List, we have a Prayer Chain Ministry. The organizer calls the volunteers with the requests and they, in turn, call other volunteers. We accept prayer requests from all faiths and all situations, not just illnesses. The names remain on the Prayer Chain until we are told to remove them. Please contact Andrea Noto at 609-287-8619 to add names to the Prayer Chain or to become a volunteer.

Thirty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time | Matthew 25:1-13

Of the 10 bridesmaids in the parable, 5 brought enough oil for their lamps for a long wait. The other 5 were not prepared and when their oil ran out, they missed the bridegroom when they went back for more oil. Always be prepared, like the 5 sensible bridesmaids. We never know the day or hour when Christ will return.

There are 10 dots to follow, like the 10 bridesmaids waiting for the bridegroom.

Connect the dots – be wise, like the 5 prepared bridesmaids with a full lamp of oil, then color your lamp.

Always be prepared for Christ's return!
