Christ is Risen!
He is Risen Indeed! Alleluia!!

My dear friends, today we celebrate the central mystery of our Faith. Jesus Christ, born of a woman, born under the law, crucified by the Romans, has been Raised from the dead. Death no longer has Power over Him. All of creation has been transformed. At times we take this for granted; we don't think what "resurrection from the dead" really means. I invite you this Easter to ponder the meaning of the Resurrection in your heart.

From the Gospel of St. John, Chapter 20

Early on the first day of the week, while it was still dark, Mary Magdalene went to the tomb and saw that the stone had been removed from the entrance. So she came running to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one Jesus loved, and said, "They have taken the Lord out of the tomb, and we don't know where they have put him!"

So Peter and the other disciple started for the tomb. Both were running, but the other disciple outran Peter and reached the tomb first. He bent over and looked in at the strips of linen lying there but did not go in. Then Simon Peter came along behind him and went straight into the tomb. He saw the strips of linen lying there, as well as the cloth that had been wrapped around Jesus' head. The cloth was still lying in its place, separate from the linen. Finally the other disciple, who had reached the tomb first, also went inside. He saw and believed. (They still did not understand from Scripture that Jesus had to rise from the dead.)

Christ is Risen!

Beautiful Eucharist

This book will be distributed Easter Sunday at all Masses. It is free and we are pleading with you to read it! Surveys have revealed that 1/3 to 2/3 of those who are Catholic believe that in the Most Blessed Sacrament of the Eucharist the whole Christ is truly, really, and substantially contained. For many of us, we watch sadly as family, sons, daughters, sisters, brothers and so forth, leave the Church for another, or for the Sunday golf game or more sleep. This book is not in itself going to reverse that, but it is a start, simply a seed to be planted in the minds of those who have been sleep in their faith. Take one book per family, read it, discuss it within your family, and then pass it on. Become the spiritual lifeguard that your family needs. There will also be questions in the vestibule on the Eucharist. Return it to the box and appropriate questions will be published for response.

The Catechetical Sermon of St. John Chrysostom is read during Matins of Pascha.

If any man be devout and love God, let him enjoy this fair and radiant triumphal feast. If any man be a wise servant, let him rejoicing enter into the joy of his Lord. If any have labored long in fasting, let him now receive his recompense. If any have wrought from the first hour, let him today receive his just reward. If any have come at the third hour, let him with thankfulness keep the feast. If any have arrived at the sixth hour, let him have no misgivings; because he shall in nowise be deprived thereof. If any have delayed until the ninth hour, let him draw near, fearing nothing. If any have tarried even until the eleventh hour, let him, also, be not alarmed at his tardiness; for the Lord, who is jealous of his honor, will accept the last even as the first; He gives rest unto him who comes at the eleventh hour, even as unto him who has wrought from the first hour. And He shows mercy upon the last, and cares for the first; and to the one He gives, and upon the other He bestows gifts. And He both accepts the deeds, and welcomes the intention, and honors the acts and praises the offering. Wherefore, enter you all into the joy of your Lord; and receive your reward, both the first, and likewise the second. You rich and poor together, hold high festival. You sober and you heedless, honor the day. Rejoice today, both you who have fasted and you who have disregarded the fast. The table is full-laden; feast ye all sumptuously. The calf is fatted; let no one go hungry away.

O Death, where is your sting? O Hell, where is your victory? Christ is risen, and you are overthrown. Christ is risen, and the demons are fallen. Christ is risen, and the angels rejoice. Christ is risen, and life reigns. Christ is risen, and not one dead remains in the grave. For Christ, being risen from the dead, is become the first fruits of those who have fallen asleep. To Him be glory and dominion unto ages of ages. Amen.
