Christ is Risen!

Today we celebrate the Octave day of Easter known historically as “Whit Sunday.” Today we celebrate the feast of Divine Mercy Sunday. Though the prayers and readings of the day have not changed, there has been a new emphasis on the Divine Mercy of God that we joyfully celebrate this day. In the 1930’s our Lord appeared to Sr. Maria Faustina Kowalska, a humble nun in Poland. He revealed to St. Faustina much about his love. In her journal she recorded our Lord speaking to her:

Let no soul fear to draw near to Me, even though its sins be as scarlet. My mercy is so great that no mind, be it of man or of angel, will be able to fathom it throughout all eternity. Everything that exists has come from the very depths of My most tender mercy. Every soul in its relation to Me will contemplate My love and mercy throughout eternity. The Feast of Mercy emerged from My very depths of tenderness. It is My desire that it be solemnly celebrated on the first Sunday after Easter. (Diary 699)

We honor today’s Solemnity by focusing on God’s loving Mercy for all of us. We celebrate by prayer, going to Confession (within 8 days), and by attending Holy Mass. We also honor it by sharing Christ’s message of Mercy with those we meet.

As we continue to celebrate Christ’s Resurrection may we always rejoice that “His Mercy Endures Forever!”

Christ is Risen!

-Fr. King

Beautiful Eucharist

This book was distributed Easter Sunday at all Masses. It is free and we are pleading with you to read it! Surveys have revealed that 1/3 to 2/3 of those who are Catholic believe that in the Most Blessed Sacrament of the Eucharist the whole Christ is truly, really, and substantially contained. For many of us, we watch sadly as family, sons, daughters, sisters, brothers and so forth, leave the Church for another, or for the Sunday golf game or more sleep. This book is not in itself going to reverse that, but it is a start, simply a seed to be planted in the minds of those who have been asleep in their faith. Take one book per family, read it, discuss it within your family, and then pass it on. Become the spiritual lifeguard that your family needs. There is now a box in the vestibule in which to place your questions on the Eucharist. Appropriate questions will be published for response.

God bless you and your family.

The Society of St. Vincent de Paul will be present at the Knights of Columbus breakfast on April 7, 2024 (thank you Knights). They will be sharing information about their ministry with our parishioners after each Mass, from 9:00am to 12:00pm. Please visit us and learn how to serve the needy in our area, as you feast on the Knights' delicious monthly breakfast. For more information they can be reached at the parish: 609-884-1656 x315.

THANK YOU!

Holy Redeemer Food Pantry has been blessed by the generous donation of food received from the parishioners of St. John Neumann. We gathered 365 bags of food. Amazing! Your donations have made an immeasurable difference in the lives of countless individuals and families in the community. Each food item received ensures that no one goes hungry by providing nourishment and hope to those who need it most. Thank you for your support and for being a beacon of hope to those less fortunate. We look forward to continuing our journey together to fight hunger and food insecurity and making an even greater impact in the days ahead.

The Catholic Grandparents' ministry builds a community of support for grandparents and equips them with tools to bring their families closer to Christ. All grandparents are welcome to attend our next meeting which will take place on Monday, April 22 at 9:45am (after the 9am Mass). Please enter the door of St John Neumann's Parish Office, and we will meet in the large conference room. We look forward to seeing you for Mass, fellowship, and prayer with our fellow grandparents.

For more information about the Catholic Grandparents Association, visit <https://www.catholicgrandparentsassociation.org>. If you would like to attend this session or have any questions, please contact Mary Kay Dunne at 610-724-6535 or email: southjerseygrands@gmail.com.

Altar Flowers Announcement

We have been advised by our florist that, due to rising prices all around, the cost for our altar flowers has also been affected. Going forward, flowers to memorialize/honor/celebrate a loved one for the MAIN altar will be $85/each, and for the SIDE altars will be $45/each. Any questions, please call the office.
